Fuel For Life

At Southwest Gas, giving back to the communities we serve has been ingrained in our company culture since we started. Fuel For Life is a way for our employees to contribute to local non-profit organizations either by making a one-time gift or via ongoing payroll deduction. Since Fuel For Life's inception employees have responded enthusiastically and provide direct financial support to non-profit organizations throughout the company's service territories. Countless lives have been positively affected by the generosity of Southwesterners, and we plan on continuing that legacy.
